ARKEON CO-PRODUCED TWO GLOBAL ART EVENTS IN 2023

LAGOS, NIGERIA

COMING HOME TO LAGOS was an historic gathering of influential stakeholders in the African & Diaspora art and culture ecosystems from the United States, United Kingdom, South Africa, Uganda, Togo, Ghana and Nigeria. The event featured receptions with renowned mega-collectors; studio visits with acclaimed artists; and panels with international art critics, educators, collectors, curators and art executives

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

CELEBRATION OF THE ART AND CULTURE OF AFRICA AND THE DISAPORA (CACAD)

CACAD brought together art collectors and professionals from across the U.S., U.K., and Africa to join two hundred of their San Francisco counterparts to focus on expanding the Black Art Ecosystem.. The exciting itinerary included events with four major museums including MoAD, SFMOMA, OMCA and the de Young.

We believe through deep connections with others, we maximize our talents, elevate the world we live in and transcend preconceptions of who we are and can become.

ARKEON YOUTH ARTS (AYA) FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Through our fellowship program we support promising artistic and intellectual talent. AYA Fellows co-create projects that bridge across differences, illuminating our shared humanity. Projects can be expressed in the creative medium and manner of each person's choosing. Our approach to cultivating dynamic thinking and content creation with fellows relies on empowering their unique voices.

ARKEON FOUNDER & CEO

Arkeon Productions was founded in 2019 by art entrepreneur Schyleen Qualls. A producer, writer, performer and filmmaker, she was Director of the Capital Campaign for the Museum of the African Diaspora (MoAD) in San Francisco and Co-Founder of the internationally acclaimed Cleo Parker-Robinson Dance Ensemble based in Denver, Colorado.
